

To : All Parents and Carers,

As part of our monitoring of the schools progress we would like to identify your thoughts on homework as the school is about to review the homework policy.

Please could you take some time to complete the below questionnaire and return it to the school office by Friday 20th July 2012.

The Governors will collate the results and when approving the homework policy can challenge or suggest any changes that should be made.

Your opinion is very valued so please take this opportunity to complete the questionnaire.
